

AMENDMENTS TO THE CLAIMS

Claims 1-28 (Cancelled).

29. (New) A handbook comprising:

at least two generalized pages permanently bound together, each of said generalized pages being of a general nature with respect to said handbook; and at least one specialized page, each of said at least one specialized page containing content of a specific nature with respect to said handbook, said at least one specialized page being comprised of at least a portion of a printable sheet including:

an adhesive side having an adhesive layer covering at least a portion of said adhesive side, at least a portion of said adhesive side being attached to at least one of said generalized pages so as to attach said at least one specialized page to said bound generalized pages; and a printable side containing printed content of a specific nature with respect to said handbook.

30. (New) The handbook of claim 29, wherein a surface of said at least a portion of said adhesive side is directly attached to a surface of said at least one of said generalized pages via only said adhesive layer, and all of said generalized pages have a substantially identical size.

31. (New) The handbook of claim 29, wherein said handbook is operable to perform at least one operation of a group of operations consisting of operating as an official record and operating as an indication of qualification.

32. (New) The handbook of claim 31, wherein said printable side includes a plurality of printing spaces, said printing spaces forming said at least one specialized page, said adhesive layer covering at least a portion of a back side of one of said printing spaces.

33. (New) The handbook of claim 32, wherein a size of each of said printing spaces is smaller than a size of each of said generalized pages.

34. (New) The handbook of claim 31, wherein said printable side includes a plurality of printing spaces, said printing spaces forming said at least one specialized page, said adhesive layer covering at least a portion of a back side of each of said printing spaces, said printing side having at least one fold line arranged along a border between at least two of said printing spaces so as to allow said at least a portion of a printable sheet to be folded into a concertina.

35. (New) The handbook of claim 34, wherein a size of each of said printing spaces is smaller than a size of each of said generalized pages.

36. (New) The handbook of claim 31, wherein said printable side includes a plurality of printing spaces, at least one of said printing spaces being separable from said at least a portion of a printable sheet, said adhesive layer covering at least a portion of a back side of each of said printing spaces.

37. (New) The handbook of claim 36, wherein said printable side has at least one perforated line arranged along a border between at least two of said printing spaces so that at least one of said printing spaces can be separated from said at least a portion of a printable sheet.

38. (New) The handbook of claim 37, wherein a size of each of said printing spaces is smaller than a size of each of said generalized pages.

39. (New) The handbook of claim 36, wherein a size of each of said printing spaces is smaller than a size of each of said generalized pages.

40. (New) The handbook of claim 29, wherein said printable side includes a plurality of printing spaces, said printing spaces forming said at least one specialized page, said adhesive layer covering at least a portion of a back side of one of said printing spaces.

41. (New) The handbook of claim 40, wherein a size of each of said printing spaces is smaller than a size of each of said generalized pages.

42. (New) The handbook of claim 29, wherein said printable side includes a plurality of printing spaces, said printing spaces forming said at least one specialized page, said adhesive layer covering at least a portion of a back side of each of said printing spaces, said printing side having at least one fold line arranged along a border between at least two of said printing spaces so as to allow said at least a portion of a printable sheet to be folded into a concertina.

43. (New) The handbook of claim 42, wherein a size of each of said printing spaces is smaller than a size of each of said generalized pages.

44. (New) The handbook of claim 29, wherein said printable side includes a plurality of printing spaces, at least one of said printing spaces being separable from said at least a portion of a printable sheet, said adhesive layer covering at least a portion of a back side of each of said printing spaces.

45. (New) The handbook of claim 44, wherein said printable side has at least one perforated line arranged along a border between at least two of said printing spaces so that at least one of said printing spaces can be separated from said at least a portion of a printable sheet.

46. (New) The handbook of claim 45, wherein a size of each of said printing spaces is smaller than a size of each of said generalized pages.

47. (New) The handbook of claim 44, wherein a size of each of said printing spaces is smaller than a size of each of said generalized pages.

48. (New) A handbook comprising:

at least two generalized pages permanently bound together, each of said generalized pages being of a general nature with respect to said handbook; and at least one printed printable sheet, each of said at least one printed printable sheet containing printed content of a specific nature with respect to said handbook, each of said at least one printed printable sheet comprising:

an adhesive side having an adhesive layer covering at least a portion of said adhesive side, said adhesive side being shaped and arranged to attach said at least one printed printable sheet to at least one of said generalized pages so as to attach said at least one specialized page to said bound generalized pages;

a printable side containing said printed content of a specific nature with respect to said handbook; and a detachable sheet removably attached to a surface of said adhesive side so as to cover at least a portion of said adhesive layer.

49. (New) The handbook of claim 48, wherein said handbook is operable to perform at least one operation of a group of operations consisting of operating as an official record and operating as an indication of qualification.

50. (New) The handbook of claim 49, wherein said printed content includes content printed on said printable side by a printing means after content data corresponding to said printed content is retrieved from a database and transferred to the printing means.

51. (New) The handbook of claim 49, wherein said printed content includes content printed on said printable side by a printing means after content data corresponding to said printed content is retrieved from a database and transferred to the printing means.
